

Each count charges a distinct crime. You must decide each count separately. The Defendant may be found guilty or not guilty of any or of all of the crimes charged. Except for Counts I-IV, which are alleged to be a continuous course of conduct by Mr. Hamlin over the time period alleged, the District Attorney has selected specific incidents to allegedly support the charges in Counts V through XVIII.

Count V (Penal Code Section 245(a)(1)): The alleged assault in the office at the Hamlin house on September 17, 2003.

Count VI (Penal Code Section 422): The alleged threat to kill Ms. Hamlin on the tape recording made on February 2, 2004.

{ Count VII (Penal Code Section 273.5): The alleged spousal abuse and false Count VIII (Penal Code Section 236 ): imprisonment of Susan in the Hamlin bedroom the weekend Mark Steinberg was a visitor (February 7, 2004 to February 9, 2004).

Count IX (Penal Code Section 273.5): The rib breaking incident occurring on Super Bowl Sunday February 1, 2004.

Count X (Penal Code Section 245(a)(1)): The alleged assault by sword occurring on February 10, 2004 – February 11, 2004.

{ Count XI (Penal Code Section 422): The alleged holding of a gun on Ms. Hamlin Count XII (Penal Code Section 236): and threats to kill her in bed on February 10, 2004 to February 11, 2004.

{ Count XIII (Penal Code Section 273.5) : The alleged spousal abuse, assaults Count XIV (Penal Code Section 245(a)(1): and threats to kill Ms. Hamlin during Count XV (Penal Code Section 422) : the Granite Bay van trip.

Count XVI (Penal Code Section 246.3): The alleged discharge of a gun by Mr. Hamlin during the family's ride in the van around the neighborhood between February 21, 2004 and February 22, 2004.

Count XVII (Penal Code Section 273.5(a): The alleged breaking of Ms. Hamlin's nose during the laundry room incident on February 22, 2004.

Count XVIII (Penal Code Section 245(a)(1): The alleged assault on Ms. Hamlin with a stick and pipe in the garage prior to going into the laundry room on February 22, 2004.

You must unanimously agree that Counts V through XVIII are supported by the specific incidents argued to you by the prosecutor. Mere overlap in time between the Counts would not necessarily require guilty verdicts. You must consider and find whether each of the elements of each of the crimes have been proven beyond a reasonable doubt during the time period alleged.

QUESTIONS BY THE JURY

QUESTION:

We have testimony from Susan that says she was hit with the stick in the laundry room, but in your typed response to us you told us that Count XVIII is for the alleged assault on Ms. Hamlin with the stick & pipe prior to going into the laundry room. Which is it? And if the stick occurred in the laundry room, may we include that in considering Count XVI

ANSWER (IF ANY) BY COURT

Your recollection is correct. My specification to Count XVIII was incorrect in part. The prosecutor argued Count XVIII was supported by the use of both the board or stick and pipe. But you must unanimously agree on whether it was the board, pipe or both. You may not consider this evidence as to

Judge Eddie T. Keller
El Dorado County Superior Court
El Dorado, California

Dear Judge Keller,

Re: Richard Hamlin

I appeared in your court on 12/6/05 as a defense expert witness in the Richard Hamlin trial. I am writing to request that you set aside the jury verdict on the torture charge.

I believe that the California legislature did not intend California Penal Code sections 206 and 206.1 to be applied to cases like the Hamlin case.

As I understand it, these sections of the Penal Code were designed to address cases like the Larry Singleton case. In 1978 Larry Singleton chopped the arms off 15-year old Mary Vincent near Modesto and left her to die. She survived. Singleton was released from prison in 1987 after serving seven years, and subsequently murdered 31-year old Roxanne Hayes in Tampa, Florida in 1997. He died in prison in Florida before an execution date had been set.

Penal Code sections 206 and 206.1 are designed to protect the public from extreme assailants such as Larry Singleton, whose acts fall just short of murder. Richard Hamlin poses no such ongoing threat to the public. He is divorced from his wife and has never been accused of any act that remotely approaches the type of violence meant to be covered by 206 and 206.1.

It is particularly important to set aside the torture verdict because Mr. Hamlin was found innocent by the jury on many of the lesser charges. It is clear that the jury considered him innocent of many of the specific actions that he was charged with, and therefore did not understand that the torture charge carries a life sentence. Mr. Hamlin was not found guilty of any specific behavior that would support a torture charge.

It doesn't make any sense that a conviction for the acts of which Mr. Hamlin was found guilty by the jury carries a life sentence when some people convicted of rape and murder spend 5-15 years in jail.

During my work with Mr. Hamlin as a defense expert I spent many hours with him on the phone and also interviewed him in jail. In my opinion, Mr. Hamlin does not pose any ongoing threat to the public, Susan Hamlin or his children. He can be released into the community safely and can become a productive member of society again. I believe it is in the best interests of his children to have an opportunity to rebuild a relationship with him. This would be true in most cases of domestic discord, divorce, and spousal abuse, and in fact most abusive husbands do maintain ongoing relationships with their children, even when they have been convicted.

I believe it is in the best interests of both the Hamlin family and the people of California for the torture conviction to be set aside. Citizens of California should not be sent to jail for life when found guilty of specific acts that ordinarily would result in no jail time or a few years of incarceration. This is a misapplication of the Penal Code sections 206 and 206.1 that I am sure was never intended by the legislature.

Also, although Mr. Hamlin was found guilty on a number of counts, based on the evidence in the case I reviewed, there appeared to be considerable ambiguity and uncertainty concerning even the acts of which he was found guilty. But that is not my primary concern here: my concern is that a life sentence is far out of proportion to the acts of which he was found guilty.

Susan Hamlin never required surgery, intravenous medication, a cast, stitches or other serious medical treatment. She was never knocked unconscious and did not suffer a concussion. She does not allege any ongoing physical problems as a result of Mr. Hamlin's behavior. Set in the context of spousal battery and abuse, which includes rape, murder and severe injury, the acts of which Mr. Hamlin was found guilty are not extreme.

As I testified at trial, my career, including teaching, treatment, writing, speaking and research, has been focused on understanding and treating the serious, long term consequences of child abuse, domestic violence and spousal abuse. I am not an apologist for perpetrators, and I am in favor of legal consequences for criminal behavior. In this case, however, I am convinced that a life sentence for torture is far out of proportion to the acts of which Mr. Hamlin was found guilty, and far out of proportion to the intent of the California legislature.

Richard Hamlin's case highlights the need for revision and clarification of the California Penal Code sections 206 and 206.1.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Colin A. Ross, M.D.

with Mr. Richard Hamlin. Based on the last 3 months that I have spent incarcerated with Hamlin I would have to say that in my own opinion he is a great guy.
If it wasn't for his advice me and myself would be separated. Not only that but he is the main reason that I found The Lord and he is a great role model to the other inmates and myself. He is always willing to lend a helping hand and give advice. Hamlin is one of the leaders in our pods Bible studies and he always make sure we understand what's going on he is always willing to take the time to sit down with anyone and talk about anything and help fix any confusion about the Lords word.

Hamlin also is very active in the yard and tries to get everyone in on the games. He and Alvin Hamlin is a great guy and colleague.

My name is, William Wellman and I have known Richard Hamlin for two full years! first off I will say that him and I have become very close friends and I would not think twice about my trust in him or his opinions! he is a very caring person and he's always trying to help someone out in any situation! seeing how I am considerably younger than he, I have looked to him somewhat as a father figure! I don't believe he is capable of anything as far fetched as torture and what that allegation may constitute! I hope that this letter of my opinion about this fine man, will help to shed light on who he really is. I say all these things with feeling and truth as I see it!

to whom it may concern.

In my capacity as Jay pastor & Bible teacher at the El Dorado Co, Calif, I have had time with Richard Hamlin in Bible classes and as Jay pastor - I find Richard well able to step back and see himself and others with an objective point of view.

Richard is faithful to attend Church & Bible Classes as well as recovery classes where we spend time searching our selves and our motives, I believe Richard approaches each of these classes with an open mind and a willingness to discover new and important things about himself that will benefit his own life as well as the life of his family.

I thank you for the time you have taken to read this letter & re play that Richard will find favor

Lori Koler:

Hello. I am Richard Hamlin's brother and have been in regular contact, in person and on the phone, with Richard since the first week of his arrest. I just want to go on record as saying that I've been extremely impressed with Richard's ongoing positive development in spite of his not being able to see his children. While faced with some very serious charges, he expresses clearly, first and foremost, his extreme concern for the health and welfare of his children. He misses them terribly, and I really believe he should be able to see them—or at the very least write his own kids. I am certain that Richard only has positive things to tell his boys and girls, and as their father, the children would certainly benefit from this experience.

Ryan, Alec, Claire, and Jennifer also have five cousins that would love to see them. I want you to know that we want to help in any way possible. Reunification with their father is top on the list, but the entire family remains deeply concerned and desperate for any information as to the current status of the children.

Please contact me if you have any questions or if you would like to discuss any aspect of bringing about the necessary healing that will help Richard's children move peacefully and safely away from this horrible present dilemma into a positive, healthy, future.

Sincerely,

Brad Hamlin

To whom it may concern,

I am writing this letter on behalf of Richard Hamlin. I would like to bring to your attention the warm and caring person he is.

I lived with Mr. Hamlin for almost a year. From the beginning 2004 until the end. I would like to state that within that year Hamlin's main focus was his kids. Even though Hamlin is fighting a life case of his own, he was always thinking of the well being of his kids. Him and I would talk a lot and many times he would cry to me about how he just wanted contact with his kids so he could know that they were ok and tell them he loves them.

I think Richard Hamlin should be in contact with his kids. I don't think it would do any harm. I think it is doing them harm by keeping their loving father away from them. Thank you for considering my letter.

Sincerely,
Nicholas Nugent

To Whom It May Concern:

I am Debbie Adragna, a friend and a legal runner for Richard Hamlin. I have known Richard for years and in this time I've seen a great, hard working father that put in a lot of his time into his work so he could provide for his family and their needs.

Richard is a loving, caring, and a devoted father who is devastated by not seeing his children who are the most important thing in his life at this moment. His children and their well-being is his number one concern.

Being his legal runner, I have been working with Richard extensively and I really have got a chance to get to know a father in pain when he speaks about each of his children. The way I have seen him handle his pain and being separated from his children, has been his reliance on his Christian faith. He has spent a lot of his past year while in custody growing in his faith and learning how to become a better parent. He uses his time to better himself as a person and a parent. He has so much love for his children and wants to have a positive role in their lives. I have seen Richard break down and cry.

Richard realizes working so many hours, now he regrets not spending more time at home with his family.

Being a mother myself, I cannot imagine how it feels to be apart from my children. I sincerely hope that Richard Hamlin will reunite with his children soon.

Sincerely,

Debbie Adragna

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I'M WRITING IN REGARDS TO RICHARD HAMILIN, I HAVE BEEN FRIENDS WITH RICHARD FOR THE PAST 6 MONTHS. IN THAT TIME PERIOD I HAVE BECOME GOOD FRIEND WITH HIM. HE HAS BEEN A VERY GOOD INFLUENCE ON ME DURING THIS TIME OF MY LIFE. I HAVE HEARD ABOUT RICHARD'S CASE AND WHAT HE HAS BEEN THROUGH AND HOW MUCH HE CARE'S ABOUT AND MISSES HIS CHILDREN. ALL HE WANT'S AND ALL HE CARE'S ABOUT ARE HIS KIDS. DURING MY INCARCERATION IN THE ELDORADO COUNTY JAIL I HAVE MET MANY DIFFERENT PEOPLE IN HERE, BUT RICHARD HAS BEEN THE MOST CONSISTENT IN WHAT HE BELIEVES. HE HAS HELPED ME BECOME STRONGER IN MY FAITH AS CHRISTIAN FROM THE EXAMPLE HE HAS SHOWN ME WITH HIS OWN BELIEF AS A CHRISTIAN. OUT OF THE 24 PEOPLE IN THIS POD, RICHARD IS THE MOST RESPECTABLE PERSON HERE.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR TIME

My name is Henry Moles. I am currently an inmate here at the Eldorado County Jail. I've gotten to know Richard Hamlin on a very personal level. We have had serious discussions regarding his children. In result of these conversations I have seen nothing but deep sympathy in regards to his children. On a daily basis he never fails to mention to me how much he misses his kids, and how much he loves them. Hes told me of the fun times him and his kids used to have and how tight their relationship was untill this current situation. No matter how bad of a day Hamlin has had, I always see him hold a great attitude. In many ways Hamlin has provided me with Fatherly advice that was able to get me through some problems I've had in here. Thats something I have never been able to have because of not having a Father in my life. I just want it to be known that unlike others guys I have met here, Hamlin puts his kids before himself. My Mom always told me thats what makes a good parent. I've seen as much as a child on a commercial break tear's to his eye's. In my opinion, any kid should be considered privileged to have a caring and loving Father like Hamlin.

Sincerely, Henry Moles

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN,

THIS LETTER IS IN REFERENCE TO RICHARD
HAMLIN, AND MY OPINION OF HIM AS A FATHER AND ROLE MODEL. I HAVE ONLY KNOWN RICHARD FOR 5 MONTHS NOW, BUT IN THAT TIME, I'VE SPOKEN IN GREAT DETAIL WITH HIM - OF HIS LOVE FOR HIS CHILDREN.

I UNDERSTAND THERE ARE CURRENTLY PROBLEMS, BETWEEN RICHARD AND HIS CHILDREN'S MOTHER. HONESTLY, I HAVE YET TO HEAR RICHARD SPEAK NEGATIVELY ABOUT THE MOTHER, WHEN IT COMES TO ANY CUSTODY ISSUES. I AM A CHILD FROM DIVORCED PARENTS. I CAN REMEMBER THE PAIN AND DISCOMFORT I FELT DURING MY PARENTS
ARGUMENTS AND DISAGREEMENTS. RICHARD HAMLIN HAS SPOKE OF BEING VERY SUPPORTIVE OF HIS CHILDREN'S FEELINGS. I'M SURE OUTSIDE, INVOLVED PARTIES CAN APPRECIATE THIS.

RICHARD HAMLIN HAS ALSO, "TAKEN ME UNDER HIS WING" TO HELP GUIDE ME TOWARDS A CHRISTIAN AND PRODUCTIVE LIFE. THE MAN IS A TRULY LOVING AND GOD-FEARING MAN. I'M SURE HIS CHILDREN HAVE NOTHING BUT GREAT THINGS TO BENEFIT FROM THEIR FATHER. ALL OF THIS ... MEANS NOTHING AS TO ALSO, HOW DEEPLY HE LOVES THE CHILDREN.

Dear Judge Keller:

I am writing in support of my nephew, Richard Hamlin, who is being sentenced by you on March 27th. Although I live and work here in New York City, I have been in touch with him during his life more than many aunts are: my sister was his mother and she died young. I have tried to fill in.

In this situation, my family view of both Susan and Richard is that they have made more bad decisions than I can believe, and those decisions have brought them to this state. I do believe that both were at fault, however, and at this time, it seems that only my nephew is paying a serious price.

Can his past record of extremely hard work, done with no support from his father and mother, be taken as a sign that he can re-do his life and make something of it?

I have seen that work at first hand; I helped him go to law school; I have listened to description of his cases and have been struck with his empathy for his clients. I did not expect it. I expected him to be merely businesslike and found this deeper reaction admirable.

My personal wish is that he get free as soon as possible so that he can begin to re-build himself, both for his sake and the sake of his children. It seems to me that he needs to work on the diagnosis of "narcissism" he received when a psychiatrist first saw him in Placerville.

I have contacted Dr. Nancy Otterness, recommended by a close friend of mine in Sacramento. She told me, when I called her a year or so ago, that her specialty is "lawyers who are in trouble," which seemed to be a rare coincidence.

It would be my wish that my nephew see her on a regular basis when he is out of jail; I know he can handle the task of earning a living, and I will stand behind him in any case, to help him get started.

He has a brother, Bradley, who is married to a thoroughly serious and stable woman and who also lives in Sacramento. Their family is healthy and happy. We want to make sure that Richard's children are that, as well.

I believe this experience in facing judgment has been good for my nephew: he told me of what it felt like to "face the judge and admit that I had done various things" that he was not proud of.

And, in keeping his composure and presenting a defense of his situation, he has shown a steadiness and maturity that has impressed me.

I hope that his situation will be resolved on the side of mercy.

Thank you.

26 to proceed on the date currently set for motion hearing.

27 This motion will be based on this notice of motion, the 28 attached declaration of ROBERT BANNING, the attached memorandum of

EK

1 in conducting research for the post-trial motions. Mr. Hamlin has 2 certain points he is trying to research. However, the 3 availability of research materials to inmates at the 4 El Dorado County Jail has changed recently. Inmates can no longer
5 simply go to the jail's law library and consult books for research
6 purposes. Inmates must now submit written requests for certain 7 research materials. These requests are forwarded to an outside
8 research group, which collects the requested research materials 9 and then sends them back to the El Dorado County Jail. The 10 materials are then given to the inmate. The length of time needed 11 to fill the requests varies according to the materials requested.
12 Mr. Hamlin's most recent request took approximately one week to 13 complete. As can be imagined, these delays severely slow down the 14 research and writing process. Once Mr. Hamlin has written a draft 15 of a motion, that draft is given to me and the Public Defender's 16 Office prepares the formal motion.

17 The motions will raise issues that take time to research.
18 That is why the defense requested more time at the last court
19 appearance on February 3, 2006. At this time, the defense motion 20 based on Penal Code Section 1385 is mostly complete, but the 21 length of the motion is 17 pages at this time.

22 As a further example, as noted at the last court appearance, 23 the defense plans to bring a motion based on the 8th amendment to 24 the United States Constitution. That motion will require research 25 of comparable cases in order to set out the issue of what 26 constitutes cruel and unusual punishment. That research is also 27 proving to be time-consuming.

28 The defense understands that this Court wants to proceed to a

1 hearing on the motions and, if necessary, to judgment and 2 sentencing. The defense would remind this Court that the defense
3 is not interested in undue delay. However, the defense would also 4 remind this Court that on April 1, 2005, this case was set to 5 begin jury selection on May 24, 2005. On April 15, 2005, the 6 plaintiff filed in this court the present Indictment. The filing
7 of that Indictment caused trial to be delayed by five months.

8 The defense now asks for equal consideration, albeit not 9 equal delay, to prepare its post-trial motions. Mr. Hamlin 10 remains in custody with no bail set. Mr. Hamlin only has one 11 opportunity to submit motions that have been properly researched 12 and written in order to challenge, primarily, the life term that 13 looms for Count I, torture.

14 Mr. Hamlin is in custody but I am informed and believe that 15 he will agree to this re-setting.

16 I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true 17 and correct and executed on March 6, 2006, at 18 Placerville, California.

Court Reporter DeLacy K.
Bailiff K. SCHMALZ

At 8:30 a.m. the Jury arrives to continue deliberations.
At 11:45 a.m. the Jury informs the Bailiff that they have reached verdicts on 15 counts and are hung on 3 counts.
All parties called to come to court at 1:30 p.m.

NOON RECESS

-----

At 13:24 p.m. court convenes on the record - absent the Jury.

The Court advises all present including the audience that there will be no emotional outbursts or someone may be asked to leave the courtroom.

The Jury is brought into court.

The Court inquires of the Jury whether they have reached verdicts and to confirm the message that 15 counts have verdicts and 3 counts are deadlocked.

The Court asks if any further assistance would help the Jury and they answer "no".

The Court asks if the Jury believes they are hopelessly deadlocked.

Each juror answers "yes".

The foreperson advises the Court of the splits.

The Court declares the Jury hopelessly deadlocked as to Counts 5 - 14 and 15.

The verdicts are handed to the Court via the Bailiff and the Court examines them.

The Judicial Assistant reads the verdicts and they are as follows:

-----

**** JURY TRIAL - DAY 37 ****

-----

Honorable Judge EDDIE T. KELLER presiding
Clerk: Dahlgren S.
Court Reporter DeLacy K.

At 8:30 a.m. the Jury arrives to continue deliberation.
At 8:52 a.m. -
The jury sends a question to the court via the bailiff.
Question #14 reads "We feel we are "hopelessly deadlocked" on 9 of the charges."
All parties are called to come to the court.

At 9:43 a.m. court convenes on the record in chambers with the Court - Counsel and Defendant regarding the last note from the Jury wherein they feel they are deadlocked.
The Jury then told the Bailiff they may continue to deliberate.
Discussion in chambers continues both on and off the record regarding the jury impasse instruction.
At 10:00 a.m. a note is sent back to the Jury reading
"After you sent this note - the bailiff indicated you expressed a desire to deliberate further and review evidence in order to possibly resolve the remaining nine counts. It that your current feeling."

At 10:04 a.m. the Jury sends an answer as Question #15 reading "Our feeling is we are still deadlocked on 8 of the remaining charges."
The Court and Counsel and Defendant hold further discussion in chambers - then off the record at 10:15 a.m.

At 10:20 a.m. the Jury is brought into the courtroom and court reconvenes on the record with all present.
The Court asks the Jury questions regarding

being deadlocked and the foreperson responds as on the record.

Copies of the special jury instruction regarding impasse are handed out to the Jury and the Court reads the special instruction to the Jury.

At 10:30 a.m. the Court directs the Jury to continue their deliberations.

At 11:15 a.m. -

The jury sends a question to the court via the bailiff.
Question #16 reads "We need to hear any part of Alec's testimony where a "coke can" is mentioned."

Discussion held off record in chambers with the Court - Defendant and the Court Reporter regarding rough transcripts and the mention of "Alec" and "coke can".

At 11:48 a.m. -

The jury sends a question to the court via the bailiff.
Question #17 reads "We have testimony from Susan that says she was hit with the stick in the laundry room - but your typed response to us you told us that Count XVIII is for the alleged assault on M. Hamlin with the stick and pipe prior to going into the laundryroom. Which is it?
And if the stick occurred in the laundry room - may we include that in considering Count XVII?"

Question #18 reads "Can we consider all injuries occurring in the laundry room when we rule on a special allegation for Count XVII or just the nose breaking?"

-----
The Defendant is brought into chambers and Counsel are put on speaker phone - on the record while the Jury goes to lunch.
Dep. D. A. Ashworth has gone to lunch so the Clerk will try again after lunch.

-----
At 13:20 p.m. -

The jury sends a question to the court via the bailiff.
Question #19 reads "Juror #7 has a prior commitment for next Thursday so we will be unable to meet that day."

The Court Reporter is looking for testimony etc.
so there is a delay in contacting counsel.

At 13:42 p.m. conference call held via speaker phone in chambers - on the record.

Case Number : P04CRF0132                      People vs. RICHARD HAMLIN

The Court is present and the Defendant and Counsel are present by phone.

At 14:05 p.m. the answers to jury questions 17 - 18 and 19 are sent to the Jury.

The answer to Question #17 reads "Your recollection is correct. My specification to Count XVIII was incorrect in part. The prosecutor argued Count XVII was supported by the use of both the board or stick and pipe. But you must unanimously agree on whether it was the board or pipe or both. You may not consider this evidence as to Count IVII."

The answer to Question #18 reads "Just the nose breaking."

-----
The answer to Question #19 reads "Ok".

-----
At 14:36 p.m. a conference call is held at Defense Counsel Banning's request - on record - regarding the coke can (a few minutes).

-----
At 15:00 p.m. a conference call is held without the People regarding the "coke can" until 3:15 p.m.

-----
At 15:25 p.m. the Court Reporter reads back testimony for the Jury.

-----
At 15:50 p.m. -
The jury sends a question to the court via the bailiff. Question #20 reads "Our verdict forms for Count IX have a special allegation attached to them. One of our jurors recalls the allegation being removed durring proceedings. Was it removed."

-----
Conference call held with all parties.
At 16:01 p.m. the answer is sent to the Jury .
Jury Trial In Progress to resume 01-10-06 at 8:30 a.m. in Department 2.

CUSTODY STATUS

Remains remanded to the custody of the Sheriff.
Bail to remain as previously set.

The answer to Question #20 reads "No.
If you find Mr. Hamlin guilty of the Penal Code section 273.5 charge in Count IX - you must also determine whether he personally inflicted great bodily injury on Mrs. Hamlin during the commission of that crime."

The Jury retires for the day shortly after 4:00 p.m.

-----

At 13:35 p.m. -
The jury sends a question to the court via the bailiff.
Question #13 reads "We disagree amongst ourselves what sort of injury constitutes a "great bodily injury". Other than there being "significant or substantial bodily injury or damage" is there any criteria that makes an injury fall under great bodily injury? We are having trouble deciding on six counts because we don't agree."
The Court consults with the Defendant and Counsel via speaker phone conference call on the record.

At 14:15 p.m. an answer to Question #13 is sent to the Jury reading "This is a question of fact for you to decide after consideration of all the evidence. The jury instructions on the elements of the crimes charged - and the burden of proof.
The words "significant or substantial" have no
